SECTION B. (50 MARKS)

51. Read the passage below and answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

In Good Hope Junior School, teachers and pupils divide themselves into groups. These groups are then given names of colours. These colours are Red, Blue, White, Yellow and Green. Under these colours, teachers and pupils work together and help one another to promote their talents in Art and Crafts, Music, Dance and Drama, and in Games and Sports.

During second term each year, the school holds Music, Dance and Drama competitions. Preparations begin quite early. Pupils with special talents are indentified early and trained by special instructors. In addition to periods for creative Arts, each group finds extra time to practice their items. Each group keeps a distance from the others. None of the groups wants to be spied on and its tactics copied.

On the day of the competitions, Good Hope Junior School is a bee-hive of activity. Teachers and pupil's run hither and thither, trying to put final touches on their items. Soon the invited guests begin to arrive. These include parents, community members, well-wishers and officials from Mokono Town Council. Ushers show the guests where to sit in the main hall.

After singing the National and School Anthems, the competitions begin. Colour after colour comes on the stage to show what they are capable of. The audience is then treated to colourful displays and wonderful music, dancing and acting. Parents whose children appear on stage become very excited. Some jump on the stage to be with their children.
