He has a wife and a half a dozen plus a house helper who is more or less a grandmother to his children. This house helper loves the children chose to remain at home to attend to her. We were revising for PLE mock at that time. In this home, everyone has a role to play each day. Some cook, others keep compound tidy while others keep the house clean. These roles are from time to time inter-changed to allow everyone learn each piece of work.

The other day, I went to visit my class mate. I found her in the poultry pen; she told me that Saturday was her turn to feed the hens last Friday when our teacher gave us a test, this classmate of mine got all the questions about poultry correct. The teacher had not taught us some of the things like debeaking but my neighbor had learnt from their home practically.

On Sundays, our neighbor takes his family to church including the old lady.

I always admire this family and wish my uncle, aunt and cousin should do the same for us in our home.

Therefore, we all need to speak the same language in order to save our environment.
