51. Read the passage below carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

"Hurry up and come back home!" These were the last words Mrs. Egengu said to her son. She did not know that her son would not come back home. He died that day. He was knocked down by a speeding lorry.

It was on a Saturday afternoon when it all happened. Mrs Egengu had sent John to the market. She wanted him to buy some things. These included; meat, onions, tomatoes and mangoes.

In order to come back home fast, John decided to take a bodaboda. At the market, he bought whatever he was sent for. Then he started on his journey back home.

On his way, he found the road very busy. He tried to cross but unfortunately he could not manage. He tried to look for a zebra crossing but there was none. He therefore decided to cross the road while running. In the middle of the road, a speeding lorry knocked him down.

People immediately gathered to see what had happened. They tried to help the boy but it was too late. The boy was already dead. There was a traffic officer nearby. He rushed to the scene. He arrested the lorry driver. The traffic officer later announced that the lorry driver was drunk.

An ambulance was called by the officer. When the ambulance arrived, the boy's body was taken to Mulago Hospital. It was taken there to be examined. The lorry driver was taken to the police station to make a statement. It was a very sad day for John's mother.

TYPHOID.

*Typhoid! You Monster!
You came to make us suffer.
Thousands of people die allover the country.
Oh! You Monster, who created you?*

*Typhoid! You Monster!
You have brought misery to us.
Just at the sight of diarrhoea, headache and fever,
Makes me know that you are here.
Oh! You Monster, where did you come from?*

*Typhoid! You Monster!
Multiplying through contaminated food and water.
And flies and cockroaches.
Your main means of transport.
Oh! You Monster, I really hate you.*

*Typhoid, You Monster!
Deadly as you are
You will not scare me for ever.
I know how to fight you.
I will always wash my hands with soap.
And dispose of waste matter properly.*
