SECTION B: 50 MARKS

51- Read the passage below carefully and in full sentences answer the questions that follow.

Born in cattle rearing community, Karomoja region, Olupot had to prepare his holiday plans in a way that it could suit the life style of his community. Being the only boy at home, he could wake up at dawn, and he goes to the garden first. Ploughing their garden up to 10:00am and thereafter, he goes back home to rest for a while as he waits for food. After eating, he could go straight to his grass thatched house to put on his daily grazing attire.

What he could not leave behind was a book for each subject each day he goes to graze. His plans required carefulness because grazing while revising is not something easy. This act has helped him a great deal because he knew that there were always beginning of term examinations. He could report back every beginning of term ready for any paper. His excellent performance made him a pride of his father who said he was ready to pay fees for his son up to university mostly when he got a compliment from Olupot's teachers.

When Olupot reached primary seven, his father decided to put him in boarding. He concentrated on his studies because he wanted to perform and join a secondary school of his choice. Sitting his PLE in November, 2022, Olupot went back home and concentrated on grazing and selling milk which he could take to their nearby trading centre at 5:00p.m after taking the cattle to the kraal. This made him save a lot of money for his pocket money in secondary.

Upon the release of results in January, 2023, Olupot checked his results and all he saw on his father's phone was aggregate four. He jumped and hugged his father. He was given a vacancy in senior one at Kings College Buddo to study on bursary. He advised his two younger sisters to work harder so that they can maintain his legacy.

52- Read the poem below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

In our country, Uganda, where stories unfold
Culture's tales in vibrant colours are told
From ancient drums to modern beats
A rhythm of heritage, the heartbeats.

In dance and song, under the African sky
Uganda's culture soars high
Through folk tales shared around fire places
Tradition of the old continue to grow

In market bustling, flavours ignite
Ugandan cuisine, a delicious delight
From cassava to matoke, a feast of the soul
Culture's flavours make the spirit whole.

In uganda's embrace, unity is found
Culture's essence, forever profound
From Buganda to Karamoja plains
Uganda's culture in every veins remains
