MY SISTER'S INTRODUCTION CEREMONY

One of the most memorable moments in my life is when my sister, Apio, introduced her fiancée to our family.

The ceremony took place at our home in Lamwo District. The son-in-law appeared fabulous in his Acoli traditional wear. All guests held spears in their hands to show protection for their bride.

The traditional Acoli food reflected the importance of the function. "Malakwang" Bush meat pasted with "Odii" "boo", "dekker ngor", not forgetting the millet bread. Oh! What a list of delicacies.

"Don't touch that plate of "Malakwang"! It is mine, a little restless boy was heard screaming at his friends.

The colourful party was concluded with "Lakaraka" dance where the single boys and girls paired up and enjoyed the dance.
