THE 2010 PLE RESULTS.

The 2010 PLE results were released on 18th January 2011 at Statistics House in Kampala. Releasing the results, Hon. She further said that English had been done best followed by Science, Social studies and Mathematics in that order. Parents were then advised to send an SMS on 6600 to access the results of their children.

After the release of the results, the news went round through different T.V and radio stations plus newspapers. Journalists visited schools and homes of the candidates who had excelled to get their photographs.

As different schools were in jubilation, others were mourning. This was because their results had been with-held due to examination malpractices. UNEB said that among the malpractices were asking other people to sit for the candidates; that is termed as impersonation, copying from papers smuggled into the rooms, getting assistance from
