SECTION B

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

Last term, our class agreed to have a tour to one of the radio stations. We shall visit one of the studios in the nearby town, we agreed. This was just before we broke up for holidays. Our teacher and the head teacher asked us to talk to our parents about this tour. As a class, we also agreed to pay fifteen thousand shillings. This money would be facilitate our movement to and from Tororo Town where the radio station was. It would also facilitate our lunch.

Last Friday, as early as 7:00am, we set off. The school, using some of the money we had paid, had hired three minibuses. How excited we became! This was because it was our first time some of us were boarding minibuses. The minibus in which I sat had very comfortable seats which were new and each seat had a seatbelt. It had a music system from which gospel music was blaring. There were smiles on the faces of each one of us who were in this minibus.

At 9:00am, we arrived at Rock Mambo Radio Station. Immediately we arrived, a lady came towards us. 'You are most welcome to Rock Mamabo Radio Station,' she said heartily. 'Thank you, Madam,' we chorused. She then shook hands with our teachers who had accompanied us. Then she introduced herself as Katushabe, our guide. In groups of fifteen, we divided. I was in the first lot. She led us to the reception and introduced the lady there as Jack, the receptionist. She said it is the work of the receptionist to welcome the visitors to the radio station and guide them. At the reception, we also found some of the radio presenters whose voices were very well-known over the airwaves. There was Oben who hosted children's talk show. HEe welcomed us and shook our hands. DJ Bobo was also there. He was a small man yet his voice was very deep when presenting his Praise the Lord Night Show. There were some two ladies present as well. One was Lady Anitah and the other was House Girl whose real name was Marina Ochola. These ladies presented The Evening Drive Show.

After their show, Anitah led us through the station despite the fact that we could not get into the studio because there was a programme being broadcast. After all the groups had toured the station, our teachers led us to some of the places in town where electronics were sold. We went to Oki and Sons Electronics. So many items were there. There were hoofers, CDs and DVDs.

The woman in the gown,
Looks so beautiful
Her file is infectious
Everyone present smiles back
She is a bride!

The man in the blue suit,
His figure is so cute,
He takes his steps with confidence
And waves to everyone present,
He is the bridegroom!

The woman beside the bride,
Enjoys every minute that goes by,
She too smiles sweetly
As she waves to the people,
She is the bridesmaid!

The man beside the bridegroom,
Resembles the groom from top to toe,
He wipes the groom's face
And sets his tie in the right place,
He is the best man!
