SECTION B: 50 MARKS

51. Read the report below and answer the questions in full sentences.

HEADTEACHER'S REPORT DURING THE P.7 PARENTS' MEETING.

Dear parent of Kasota Primary School, you are most welcome! Congratulation upon reaching the last stage of the Primary Level. Allow me talk about your role in the education of your child.

As a parent, you are the number one teacher. You are expected to carry out guidance and counseling to your child. Constant guidance and counseling will give the child the right direction. Appreciate your child on the positive things he does. This will give him confidence to work harder. Talk to him in a good way on whatever bad behavior you notice. When he realizes that he is being watched and that everyone cares about him, he will change.

It is important also to know your child's strength and weaknesses; know the person (friend) who your child hangs out with and advise him accordingly. You need to be a friend and a provider. Be a good listener and a fair judge. Once in a while buy for him a surprise to motivate him.

Always follow up your child's work by checking his books. Note all the important things in the book and discuss them with the teachers when you visit the school.

Lastly, encourage your child to think positively about life and education.

Questions

a) Which school organized this meeting?

b) Who is the number one teacher of every child?

c) Which other word means the same as role?

d) What will make the child change?

e) How can a parent follow his child's class work?

f) With whom should the parents discuss the child's class work?
