SECTION B (50 MARKS)

(Questions 51-55 carry 10 marks each)

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the Questions that follow.

In 2017, I was in P.3 and my brother Raymond was in P.7 class in our beloved school, Naoma Primary School. I used to envy my brother's excellent grades but I dreaded the way he told in the candidate's class. Our candidates used to have lessons till 6:00pm unlike the rest of the pupils who would leave at 4:00pm.

After a long and thorough period of preparation, UNEB released the time table. It was a clear Monday morning and candidates gathered ready for their examinations. I peeped from the veranda at the teacher's quarters and saw the thorough checking by invigilators that the poor boys and girls went through. It was tight. The examination exercise went well till the last paper on Tuesday, when the invigilators found some pieces of papers in the boys' toilet. The pieces of paper had similar questions to those in exam papers so the examination was halted and soon, police was all over the school. The candidates were terrified and confused but fortunately a man was seen running past the toilet and was intercepted and interrogated.

After some time, the man confessed that he had been paid to fail the school. Since the candidates had not seen the pieces of paper, they were allowed to resume the examination.

Most of them wrote exams while weeping. Now I am in P.7 in the same school and I pray for success in the fourth coming P.L.E examination in November 2022.

54. Read the poem below and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

Reckless drivers! Reckless drivers!
Reckless drivers here, and reckless drivers there!
East to West, Central to North and South,
In every family, you are cursed!
Tears seen in people's eyes
After losing their dear ones across the whole country.

Reckless drivers! Reckless drivers!
I was once a reckless driver,
Now a prisoner,
Caged like a mad dog,
Suffering like a horse,
Travelling in the desert,
No water to drink.
Reckless drivers, Reckless drivers!
I feel sad and sorry for myself,
Looking at my hands and feet,
Tied with chains and ropes
While I am sitting,
On the naked thigh,
Of the stone floor.
