SECTION B

(Questions 51 to 55 carry 10 marks each)

- 51 Read the passage below and in full sentences answer the questions that follow.

It was a Saturday morning and I was so excited! My sister, Adong Lianah was getting married. I was the maid of honour. I helped her put on her beautiful white wedding gown and did her hair. She looked like a princess. The church was filled with friends and family members. All of them were smiling and happy.

The groom, my new brother-in-law, looked handsome in his navy blue suit. When the music started, my sister walked down the aisle and the nuptials began.

After the "I dos" we took photos outside St. Paul's Cathedral in the nearby gardens.

The sun was shining and everyone was just in mood for the ceremony. The reception was so much fun. We ate delicious food, danced and celebrated. My sister and her husband had their first dance as a married couple.

It was so memorable! I felt happy seeing my sister in deep love. His wedding day was one of those that I will never forget. It was a day filled with love, joy and happiness and I got to be part of it.

My beloved mother,
I am proud of you,
For the war you fought in the labour room,
Bearing all the pain one can't imagine,
How can I reward you?

My beloved mother,
Buying you a car cannot be enough,
Sheltering you can't satisfy,
What suits your deeds, my mother?
Long live! Long live! My heroine!

My beloved mother,
You could not complain about the burden,
Of carrying me in your tummy for nine months,
You gave me a bath many times,
To keep me clean all the time.

My beloved mother,
A loving mother you are,
To withstand the poverty,
Simply because of me,
To be seen prosperous in future.
Okello Abey
