SECTION B

51. Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

During the funeral of Amon's father, a lot of mourners joined him to send off the late Aggrey at their ancestral home in Kyengera Town Council. Below is the message of appreciation Amon wrote and published in Prime Newspaper a week after his father's funeral. Read it and answer the questions.

APPRECIATION

TO: ALL THOSE WHO ATTENDED MY FATHERS'S FUNERAL

I wish to extend my sincere gratitude to whoever joined me when I lost my father. You gave me comfort when I saw you at the funeral ceremony in large numbers. I really owe you big thanks, dear people. Thank you for the condolences you gave my mother who is a widow now. Special thanks to the people who contributed some money for my young siblings' education. I can't forget the driver who did a great job of driving the hearse. The grave diggers who rendered a voluntary service are highly appreciated as well. Even the doctors who struggled to save my father's life deserve my special recognition although God finally called him.

May God reward you abundantly and protect you in all your endeavours. May his soul rest in everlasting life.
