When I see the plants everywhere,
When I see their fowers in attractive colours,
When I see their leaves in different shapes,
When I eat their fruit in different tastes,
I say, oh God, how wonderful You are!

When I see beautiful birds all around,
Some in trees and others flying in the air,
When I see their feathers in different colours,
When I see their wings and bodies in different sizes,
Their eggs and meat full of nutrients,
I say, oh God, how powerful You are!

When I see different animals all around,
Their bodies covered with thick hairy skins,
Their meat and milk, food for hundreds of people,
Their dung and urine manure and food to all plants,
I say, oh God, how wise You are!
