Dear Madam,

RE: APOLOGY FOR LOSING A THESAURUS

I am writing to extend my sincere apologies to you. This is because I lost the thesaurus that I had borrowed from the library. I am truly sorry for my negligence.

It got lost when I left it on my table and went out for our PE lesson, with Mr. Kintu, our class teacher. By the time I came back, I could not find it. I will talk to my parents as soon as possible so that they can replace it. I also request you not to ban me from borrowing books in the library.

I will be very grateful if my apology is regarded positively.

Your faithfully
Kengyeyo Jeneviva

Democracy is all we need
For peaceful and harmonious living
In this mighty school
If we are to be happy
And respectful to our prefects

Democracy is all we need
So, we need free and fair elections
Where all candidates are given equal opportunity
To contest and campaign
For positions of their choice

Democracy is all we need
Dear voter, be careful and alert
Take not a bribe in exchange for your vote
For good leaders are chosen, not by favour
But by their ability to lead

Democracy is all we need
In order to get responsible leaders
Who lead not by force, but by guidance
This will make us good and obedient pupils
In our school Kinzowe Junior.
