

THE SPECTRUM
MARKING GUIDE FOR BOT 1 2025
P.7 ENGLISH

- | | |
|-------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. lying | 11. to |
| 2. worryingly | 12. of |
| 3. most expensive | 13. among |
| 4. emptied | 14. from |
| 5. ninth | 15. too |
| 6. quarrelsome | 16. any sensible sentence |
| 7. furnish | 17. any sensible sentence |
| 8. geese | 18. electronic mail |
| 9. diners | 19. saint |
| 10. reception | 20. and so on / etcetera |
21. I have the pleasure to see you here.
 22. Everything has become costly these days.
 23. toothpicks
 24. oases
 25. bear, boat, bore, born
 26. serve, service, serviceable, services
 27. The road to our home is very wide.
 28. Our ewe is so unhealthy.
 29. The crockery is fragile.
 30. The old man forgot where he had left his keys.
 31. The security guard caught the thief and so did the sniffer dog.
 32. "The dead man," said the doctor, "will be buried on Monday."
 33. My mother woke up very early in the morning so that she could board the earliest train.
 34. Unless you visit Ruaha national park, you won't see antelopes.
 35. Hardly had he seen a snake under the bed when he ran outside shouting.
 36. Had we cooked rice, we would have given some to our best friend.
 37. "You are going to the museum today," said the head teacher.
 38. No sooner had Rhona become serious than she made good progress in her studies.

39. Clara spoke confidently on assembly even though she is a very tiny girl.
40. Neither Gideon nor Godwin stole the money.
41. Despite the fact that the candidates were punished by their class teacher, they were very happy.
42. All the International tourists were stung by bees in the game park.
43. There is hardly any sugar in this tea.
44. Morgan plays volley ball, as well as tennis, very well.
45. The boy is more interested in watching films than in attending lessons.
46. The doctor treated neither the river nor the passenger.
47. They have been playing hockey since 8:00 a.m.
48. The tree dried as soon as the lumberjack cut it down.
49. Unless that girl gets serious, she will not pass the examinations.
50. Every cloud has a silver lining.

51.
 - (a) Ayatu lived in Naminya village.
 - (b) Ayatu had two girls.
 - (c) Ayatu's major work was farming.
 - (d) The villagers begged for food from Ayatu because he was the only one who had it in the whole village.
 - (e) Ayatu's cassava, maize and potatoes were dug by his two daughters.
 - (f) The villagers killed Ayatu because he was a witch.
 - (g) The chairperson L.C I called a meeting of some villagers.
 - (h) The children of Ayatu were not killed because they were innocent.
 - (i) Oromodi, one of the security guards of Ayatu called the police for help.
 - (j) The police took Ayatu's body to the hospital mortuary.

52.

- (a) Mrs. Marina Kevins is our teacher of English.
 - (b) She teaches us English so well that we all like her.
 - (c) And we always long to have her exciting lessons.

- (d) In her exciting lessons, she tells us a lot of things.
- (e) One of the things she tells us is discipline.
- (f) She says that discipline is the key to success.
- (g) And that without it, there is no performance.
- (h) She also says that we must be God-fearing.
- (i) Because the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom.
- (j) What a wonderful teacher she is!

- 53.
- (a) The title of the poem is “A CRAZY COUNTRY.”
 - (b) This poem has three stanzas.
 - (c) This country is crazy because it has incredible stories.
 - (d) According to the poem, powerful businessmen carry out child sacrifice.
 - (e) I think, a child called Oloka Jimson is talking in this poem.
 - (f) One can find bodies of sacrificed children in garbage collecting centres, bushes and swamps.
 - (g) The poet of this poem is Oloka Jimson.
 - (h) The writer of this poem is in primary six.
 - (i) sacrifice- killing
destroy – damage

- 54.
- (a) The notice is about the forthcoming baked products exhibition.
 - (b) This notice appeared in the Monitor newspaper.
 - (c) The notice appeared on 3rd January 2025.
 - (d) The venue of the exhibition is Twins Gardens Zana.

- (e) The purpose of the exhibition is to empower women to set up self-help projects in baking and cookery.
- (f) Twaha bakery and confectionary Ltd is the company which has organized the event.
- (g) One of the items on sale that day are the baking trays.
- (h) This event will take two days.
- (i) Janat Kobugabe, the managing director, wrote the above notice.
- (j) At a discount of 50%, one will pay ten thousand shillings for an icing set.

55.

One busy morning, Odoi was riding to school. He met school children crossing at the Zebra crossing. He had not noticed the road sign. So he got an accident while riding his bicycle Odoi was not badly hurt but his clothes were covered in dust and had a head cut. Mr. Kafuko gave him first aid and took him home in his taxi He told Odoi's mother that Odoi had been knocked down by a car. You should be more careful on your bicycle, especially at junctions he said to Odoi. You are lucky you did not have to go to hospital.