SECTION B. (50 MARKS)

51. Read the passage below and answer questions about it in full sentences.

BANKING.

Do you have an account with any financial institution? As you might know, knowing how much money you have is very crucial to an individual as well as to business. Fortunately, in Uganda, there are a number of business organizations such as banks, companies like the post office and Credit Unions which handle money very well.

You should decide which of the above organizations you would use basing on the kind of service you intend to have. You may then deposit your money with the organization of your choice and later withdraw some or all of it by means of a cheque or a withdraw slip. Financial institutions have differences in operation which in turn may be advantageous to their client. However; they are also similar in some ways. All banks and some other institutions welcome depositors with savings in small or large amounts. They pay the depositor an interest on the money while it is on the deposit account if it is left there for a reasonable length of time.

The commonest savings account are the current savings account and the fixed savings account. The current savings account allows the depositor to withdraw money on the account up to the full amount deposit. The fixed savings account does not allow the depositor to withdraw money until the agreed time. To withdraw money, the depositor must appear in person to fill out the required form or slip.

Questions.

53. Read the poem below and then answer the questions about it in full sentences.

We are animals of reason,
Animals of concern covered by pain,
Of how we die nowadays,
Gone we are all, nowadays,
Oh yes, indeed we have come,
To fight our freedom.

Slaughtering, hunting and killing of any nature,
To us are directed,
In the bush we are hunted,
And killed innocently.
At home we are slaughtered,
In all we plead, but all in vain.

What a hard life fellows and I lead!
When the bush is burnt, we stifle.
Due to little oxygen
I promise, we are to fight,
Whoever does not listen to our call for freedom.
