SECTION B

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

I can't forget the first time I used a telephone because it was very interesting. My father, who was working in Kampala at that time, brought the telephone to me. When he handed the phone to me, he didn't explain how to use it. He claimed that he had no time. He had to rush to catch a night bus back to Kampala. When he reached Kampala, he called to inform my siblings and I, that he had reached safely. The phone rang but I didn't hear it. The phone went on ringing. I continued talking but I did not hear anything. I remained confused. After sometime, father called again. This time I picked the phone and took it to our neighbor Mrs. Lubuto. She told me to press the green button and put one end of the phone on my ear and another one close to my mouth and say, "Hello". As soon as I did that, I had my father's voice. He also responded, "Hello". I was excited. He instructed me to read the paper that was in the box of the phone for more instructions on how to use the phone.
