He Reigns Primary School is one of the primary schools found in Eastern part of Uganda. This school always conducts its annual sports days in term one. During that season, a number of preparations are done. The games master and the sports prefect work tirelessly to ensure proper arrangement before the final day. The patrons position themselves in different houses to take charge of the entire exercise.

Additionally, they register pupils that are naturally awake gifted in different aspects and train them thoroughly before the stated date.

When the day ripens, the games master and the games prefect gather pupils in their camps. In this day vuvuzella and whistles are blown to motivate participants and to instruct them. There is always a table for recording participants according to their positions
