One day, Walusimbi's father decided to take him to visit the village. His father was born in that village. The village was Mpenja in Gomba. He was very happy to be given the opportunity.

They set off at 8:00 a.m. by a bus. A few kilometers before they reached the village, there was a bridge. The bridge had broken down the previous day. It had not been repaired yet, so vehicles couldn't cross. They charged five hundred shillings to go across the bridge. His father paid for both and they crossed. After that, they hired motorcycles for the rest of the journey.

In the village, they were warmly welcomed. They had long conversations with Walusimbi's grandparents. The grand mother told Walusimbi that the village was a good place to stay. This is because of many reasons. For example, people in the village can afford to eat chicken every week. He loved chicken so much but he never wanted to stay in the village.

52. Read the poem below and answer in full sentences the questions that follow.

There is a deadly practice
Among many school children
Who are lazy during school time
But want good results after an examination.

Those children cheat in examinations
They write answers on pieces of paper
And hide them where invigilators can't see
As they are being checked before exams begin

How foolish these children are!
They copy answers wrongly
Making it easy for examiners to find out
And understand that there is a malpractice

How unlucky some parents are!
While other parents show joy for results
These are in sorrow and tears
For their children's results have been cancelled.
