Section B

51. Read the passage and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.
For quite some time Adrian wondered why his mother praised banks. He never knew their importance. He got the answer to this when he visited Stanbic Bank- Mukono Branch last Friday. It was his teacher's idea to take his class there because he was going to teach them about banking.

They boarded the school Bus and reached the bank at 11:00am. The smartly dressed cashiers welcomed them. The Branch Bank Manager later came and introduced them to us. We wondered whether our teacher Mr. Sabiiti Apuuli had informed them about our visit. Everything was in order. The bank manager told us the importance of banks to people among other was giving loans. This did not interest us like keeping our school fees safe.

We were excited when we were given bank slips to fill in. The cashiers helped us to fill in these forms together without the teacher of English. At the end of the exercise, we left the bank at 3:00pm and went back to school, very exhausted but at least we had known how to deposit our school fees using bank slips.

Questions:

a) Which bank did the pupils visit?

b) Give one name of the pupils who visited the bank.

c) Who brought the idea of visiting the bank?

d) What means of transport did the pupils use to visit the bank?
