41. Read the passage below and full in sentences answer the questions that follow

Kamoga, the village chairman of Katabi, had a wife called Namyalo. Kamoga and Namyalo had three children, two boys and one girl. Katalo was the first born followed by Menya and then Babirye the last in the family.

One morning, Kamoga woke up and decided to visit a witch doctor because he wanted to get riches like his friend in the village. On reaching the witch doctor's home, he presented his problem of acquiring riches. The witch doctor just laughed and told him that it would be very possible if he fulfilled only one condition. The only one condition was to sacrifice his first born in the family. Kamoga accepted to fulfill the condition and went back home immediately.

When he reached home, he tricked his wife and took their first born to the witch doctor. The boy was beheaded and sacrificed. When Kamoga went back home, he did not have the boy and this worried the mother. When he was asked about the boy, he simply kept quiet and this confused the mother more.

After thirty minutes without any response from Kamoga, the mother decided to report the matter to police. By the time the police came to arrest him, he had committed suicide in the nearby bush. Kamoga died without getting the riches for which he had sacrificed his son.
