54. Read the poem below carefully and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

A BEAUTIFUL CREATURE

I am a pot,
In the hands of a potter,
I am created by his skills,
In different shapes and sizes,
I made and I exist.

I am beautiful and purposeful,
By the designs my creator puts on me,
I attract people to buy and take me,
To their homes I stay,
And in their houses I sleep

My mother is Mrs. Clay,
I am useful to everyone,
In the kitchen, you find me,
In the sitting room I am,
Not as a seat, but a freezer,
To cool water for man to quench thirst.

When I am old with soot and cracks,
I am still useful to the potter,
I am used as a raw-material,
In making other pots and vessels,
After crashing me into grains and powder.

Questions

By Black Sooty.

(a) Who is speaking in the poem?

(b) In whose hands is the speaker created?

(c) What attracts people to buy the speaker?

(d) Apart from the kitchen, where else is the speaker found?
