SECTION B: 50 MARKS

Questions 51 to 55, carry 10 marks each

51. Read the passage below and answer in full sentences the questions that follow.

Nationality refers to the legal right of belonging to a particular nation. It is very important to know different nationalities and also good to meet such people. This can be at a public event like a party, a funeral or a sports event. At times, a person may have dual nationality. Dual nationality means a citizen of two countries.

In our school, we often meet pupils of different nationalities for example; the Sudanese, Indians, Congolese, Kenyans, Rwandese, and Tanzanians. Each of these speaks a different language. Pupils from Congo speak Lingala whereas those from Rwanda speak Kinyarwanda and French. They speak French because it is believed that they were once colonized by France.

Kenyan and Tanzanian pupils usually speak Kiswahili whereas Ugandan nationals speak a variety of local languages such as Luganda, Runyakitara, Luo, Lumasaba, and Lusoga among others.

Despite these several languages, at school, teachers always encourage pupils to speak or use English as a medium of communication. This is done to promote unity and cooperation among pupils of different nationalities.

Read the poem below and answer in full sentences the questions that follow.

53.

The abattoir is,
Like a battle field,
Filled with blood every morning,
From the innocent animals,
Sentenced to death by the butcher,
Cows, bulls, goats and sheep,
Are never pardoned.

The cows moo and the bulls bellow;
The goats and sheep bleat,
Seeking for assistance,
But no one comes to their rescue,
Everybody's appetite raised,
Because they will make a stew
And tasty meals.

The customers wait for the meat,
At the butcher's shop or stall,
The butcher cuts meat into pieces with a panga,
With the weighing scales,
Kilograms are measured,
For the customers to take,
But the vegetarians have mercy,
For they never taste meat.

Mr. Kaddu Wasswa
